AFC Wimbledon On This Day

History, Facts & Figures from Every Day of the Year

By Gary Jordan and Stephen Crabtree

Key features

- Fascinating, highly dipppable look at AFC Wimbledon and Wimbledon FC's unique history and with facts and figures from key moments on and off the pitch
- Relive a special moment in the club's story on every day of the year
- Stephen Crabtree is a club historian and Gary Jordan an author who's covered Wimbledon's history – together they have exhaustively searched the archives to write this book
- Includes the key dates when the club was torn away from its roots, only to restart within weeks, and revives the moments Wimbledon won the FA Amateur Cup as well as the FA Cup (the only club to achieve that double)
- Publicity campaign planned including radio, newspapers, websites, podcasts and magazines

Description

Wimbledon Football Club was founded in 1889, and from then until now it has had a history like no other in football. From being the only team to have won both the FA Cup and FA Amateur Cup, to having the club controversially snatched away from its fans, only for them to reform the club, and for AFC Wimbledon to rise again through the leagues and re-establish itself as a Football League side. Vinny Jones, John Fashanu and Dennis Wise ... the Crazy Gang of the 1980s was an intimidating team that used its physicality to overcome opponents, but it could play as well, under the leadership of Dave 'Harry' Bassett. When you dig deeper you realise there was more to this side than the sensationalist headlines. In AFC Wimbledon On This Day, you'll find facts and figures, famous games, managers and players who have made an indelible mark on the club's legacy. Even under the current guise of AFC Wimbledon, the team continues to write new chapters in its illustrious history.
