

Title information

Dalglish

The Fifty Matches that Made the Player

By Tom Brogan

Key features

- In-depth look at Kenny Dalglish's early career from before he established himself at Celtic to when his playing career ended with Liverpool as he focussed on management
- Examines the relationships Dalglish had with the coaches and managers who shaped his career
- A deep dive into the relationships Dalglish formed on the pitch with team-mates, which helped the sides he played in become so successful
- Insight from those who played against Dalglish on what made him such a difficult opponent
- Fifty matches that track Kenny's career – from a young, talent to one of the greats – and includes a new slant on some classic Celtic, Liverpool and Scotland games
- Publicity campaign planned including radio, newspapers, websites, podcasts and magazines

Description

Dalglish: The Fifty Matches that Made the Player explores the legendary Kenny Dalglish's playing career across 50 pivotal games. As well as his better-known accomplishments, the book takes in his days playing boys' club football, his caps for Scotland Schoolboys and his time in Celtic's reserves. It then moves to Kenny's most important games for Celtic, Liverpool and Scotland, from league matches to cup wins, to triumphs and near misses in Europe, to World Cup qualifying drama. Discover the relationships in Kenny's career that helped to shape the player he became: from his bond with Bobby Dinnie, the scout who discovered him, to his connection with Celtic reserve team boss Sean Fallon, to his relationships with managers such as Jock Stein and Bob Paisley. The book also explores the bonds Dalglish formed on the pitch, focussing on strike partnerships with Dixie Deans and Ian Rush. Essential reading for all fans of Liverpool, Celtic or Scottish football, this enthralling book unpicks what made Dalglish such a special player for almost 20 years as he won trophies and set records at the top level.

Details

Publication: 22 September 2025
Price: £18.99
ISBN 13: 9781836801719
Format: 222mm x 144mm
Binding: Hardback
Extent: 320 pages
Category: Football

Trade Orders to:

Macmillan Distribution (MDL),
Cromwell Place, International Business Park,
Lime Tree Way, Basingstoke, Hampshire RG24 8YJ

Telephone: 01256 302692
Email: orders@macmillan.co.uk