

Title information

Firsts, Lasts and Onlys: Tennis

A Truly Wonderful Collection of Tennis Trivia

By Paul Donnelley

Key features

- Latest in a popular series of fun sporting trivia books
- Filled with fascinating facts, figures and trivia to inform and stimulate discussions in the pub or grandstand
- The Sunday Times Top Ten best-selling author Paul Donnelley has over 30 years' experience in publishing, both as a Fleet Street journalist and author of nearly 30 books
- Timeless book, giving it an extended shelf-life and making an ideal present for any tennis fan
- Publicity campaign planned including radio, newspapers, websites and magazines

Description

Firsts, Lasts & Onlys is a tennis fan's delight, chock-full of astonishing events, time-honoured anecdotes and extraordinary facts. The book takes a light-hearted but authoritative look at every major tennis tournament in the world, including the Wimbledon Championships. Discover how the first championships – held in 1877, the same year as the first cricket Test match – were almost an afterthought. Did you know that no women were allowed in the first tournament? Or that the All England Club was actually founded to promote croquet? The book is packed with fascinating trivia that will tantalise and enthrall. When did strawberries and cream become a Wimbledon staple? Who was the first man to win all four major titles in the same year? Who is or was Roland Garros? Filled with bizarre curiosities from the sport's past – from the heir to the throne whose death was caused by tennis, to the vicar who won Wimbledon, to the murderer who reached a final – this is a book every tennis fan should own.

Details

Publication: 1 June 2020
Price: £9.99
ISBN-13: 9781785316364
Format: 192mm x 129mm
Binding: Hardback
Extent: 192 pages
Category: Tennis

Trade Orders to: Hachette UK Distribution,
Milton Road, Didcot OX11 7HH

T: 01235 759555
E: HUKDcustomerservices@hachette.co.uk

You may also order via EDI