Description

Formula One On This Day revisits the sport's most magical and memorable moments, mixing in a maelstrom of anecdotes and characters to produce an irresistibly dippable diary with an entry for every day of the year. Revisit the day in 1955 when Alberto Ascari took an unplanned dip in Monaco harbour along with his Lancia, the race that saw Taki Inoue tangling with the course marshal's car, and Nigel Mansell's unlikely first win for Ferrari! Chock-full of events that will make you laugh, cry or shake your head in disbelief, Formula One On This Day has been painstakingly researched. It features a treasure trove of original stories and tidbits that create a snapshot of the diverse and often bizarre world of top-class motor racing. This book is a must for every motorsport fan. So, strap in and get set for a high-octane ride through F1 history.
