Description

Miracle in Bilbao chronicles all the twists and turns of Tottenham Hotspur's unforgettable 2024/25 season, which saw the north London club end their 17-year trophy drought despite the wheels coming off in their Premier League campaign. Written by a journalist who was there to witness it all, it relives every major event from Ange Postecoglou's follow-up term in charge at Spurs, where the Australian kept up his proud record of second-season silverware with Europa League glory in Bilbao – and was still sacked anyway. The book goes behind the scenes for all the key decisions made over transfers, tactics, injuries, team selections, protests, victory-parade speeches and more during a period unique in the club's 143-year history. From the mistakes made in pre-season, to a gruelling winter of discontent, to the European triumph that will live forever with players and fans alike, Miracle in Bilbao details every step of a Tottenham campaign like no other – and one that Spurs supporters will talk about for decades to come.
