

Title information

Tales from the Frontline

The Autobiography of Luke Fletcher

By Luke Fletcher, with Dave Bracegirdle

Key features

- Luke Fletcher, one of cricket's best-loved figures, tells his rip-roaring life and career story
- This colourful, larger-than-life character has been involved in more hilarious scrapes, pranks and incidents than almost anyone to have played the game
- Discover how Luke fulfilled an early sporting dream by playing schoolboy football at Wembley and Old Trafford
- Luke started his working life flipping burgers in a fast-food restaurant, but opened the bowling in men's senior cricket at just 15 years of age, alongside a former England Test star
- Discover how he sustained a career-threatening injury in a T20 match at Edgbaston; also how an ill-judged remark led to Luke receiving a 'Glasgow kiss' from an international star
- Publicity campaign planned including radio, newspapers, websites and magazines

Description

For over a decade Luke Fletcher has been a firm fan favourite at Trent Bridge. This 6'6" gentle giant never gives less than 100 per cent for Nottinghamshire, but a laugh and a joke are never far from his lips. Within the space of a week in 2017 he went from the highs of winning a Lord's cup final to suffering a serious injury. As with most events in his life, the incidents provided scope for his infectious humour, much of it self-deprecating. An uncanny ability to be in the wrong place at the wrong time and his on-off relationship with the strength and conditioning gurus has often landed him in hot water, providing ammunition for witty comebacks. But although a clever quip is never far away, the broad-beamed paceman has earned the respect of everyone in the game. He has played against – and got the better of – virtually every opponent he has faced and has a career record to be proud of. In Tales from the Front Line, 'Fletch' serves up laughs aplenty as he takes us on an anecdotal journey through our summer game.

Details

Publication: 2 November 2020
Price: £19.99
ISBN-13: 9781785316876
Format: 240mm x 160mm
Binding: Hardback
Extent: 288 pages
Category: Autobiography, Cricket

Trade Orders to: Hachette UK Distribution,
Milton Road, Didcot OX11 7HH

T: 01235 759555
E: HUKDcustomerservices@hachette.co.uk

You may also order via EDI