

Title information

The Nine Waves

The Extraordinary Story of How India Took Over the Cricket World

By Mihir Bose

Key features

- Untold story of how India transformed themselves from the dull dogs of cricket to the world superpower
- Mihir Bose is an award-winning journalist, broadcaster and author, winner of the English Cricket Society Silver Jubilee Literary Award and a runner-up for the William Hill Sports Book of the Year Award
- Bose saw Vijay Hazare, India's first Test-winning captain, play when England toured India in 1951/52; since then he has witnessed Indian cricket's most dramatic moments
- Tells the story of Virat Kohli and what he has brought to cricket both for India and globally
- Book runs to the end of the 2021 Indian tour of England, played against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic
- Publicity campaign planned including radio, newspapers, websites, podcasts and magazines

Description

The Nine Waves is a tour de force. The most entertaining and up-to-date history of Indian cricket ever published, it tells the story of the nine great waves of the game from 1932 to the present day. Each wave in Indian cricket was chock-full of mesmerising stars, thrilling moments, great victories, heartbreaking losses and significant turning points. The first wave of Indian cricket rolled in against the backdrop of momentous changes in the country and the world: Gandhi's civil disobedience campaign, World War Two and Indian independence. Through each of the waves, India strengthened its position in the cricketing firmament. By the end of the 20th century, it was the most powerful nation in world cricket. Award-winning journalist, broadcaster and author Mihir Bose brings together his first-hand experience of some of the most seminal moments in Indian cricket, his encyclopaedic knowledge of the game and his unrivalled ability as a chronicler of the sport to create a magisterial history of Indian cricket.

Details

Publication: 4 July 2022
Price: £19.99
ISBN 13: 9781801501040
Format: 240mm x 160mm
Binding: Hardback
Extent: 416 pages
Category: Cricket

Trade Orders to:

Macmillan Distribution (MDL),
Cromwell Place, International Business Park,
Lime Tree Way, Basingstoke, Hampshire RG24 8YJ

Telephone: 01256 302692
Email: orders@macmillan.co.uk