Description

We Led in Munich is the inside story of Raith Rovers' magical 1995 UEFA Cup journey. This entertaining and insightful account draws on frank and honest interviews with players, management and fans to capture the highs and lows of a historic European run for the Kirkcaldy club. Follow Raith Rovers on an unforgettable journey, from winning the Scottish League Cup and qualifying for Europe for the first time to their adventures in the exposed rocky outcrop of Toftir Stadium in the Faroe Islands, via the picturesque Icelandic town of Akranes to the Olympic Stadium in Munich. Drawing on revealing interviews with the Raith Rovers squad and their supporters, the author recounts what it was like to be part of this surreal journey and explores where life can take you after you've led against the mighty Bayern Munich in the Olympic Stadium. An uplifting and exhilarating underdog story, it recalls how a small Scottish side punched above its weight to give one of Europe's greatest clubs the fright of its life.
